

Consent to Receive Text Messages from Martin's Point Health Care

Martin's Point seeks to use an SMS Texting Service to contact you by text messaging for scheduling-related communications, including reminders, confirmations, and cancellations.

Text messages will vary in frequency. As part of enrollment in an SMS Texting Service, you may reply with the text message "HELP" for assistance. Additionally, you may opt-out of an SMS Texting Service at any time by replying "STOP" from your mobile phone. After replying "STOP", you will receive a text message to confirm that you have been unsubscribed. Text messages will be sent using an automatic dialing system to the mobile phone number provided.

Martin's Point will not share, sell, or use your opt-in contact information for other purposes.

Message and data rates may apply. If you have any questions about your text plan or data plan, it is best to contact your wireless provider.

Note that text message is not a secure format of communication. There is a risk that information contained in text messages may be intercepted by unauthorized third parties. By checking YES, you are acknowledging and accepting that risk.

By checking YES, you are authorizing Martin's Point to contact you by text (SMS) messages to your mobile phone and other wireless devices, and the use of an automatic telephone dialing system.
